Welcome to the new Academic Year. Fall Quarter is always an exciting one, especially for freshmen entering UCSB for the first time. As an honors student, you have the attributes and abilities needed to fully exploit all of the personal and academic growth opportunities that UCSB has to offer. The Honors Program offers many ways to help in the transition to college - everything from honors sections in large classes to the Match program, and from special advising services to the Honors Study Center.

I hope and expect that you will exploit these opportunities and will very soon be thoroughly and happily integrated into the UCSB community.

I wish you well for the coming academic year and success in your academic endeavors. Let the learning begin!

Dr. Mary Nisbet
Associate Dean of Undergraduate Studies
Student Academic Affairs, College of Letters and Science
